

Reasons to Join

Membership: (n) state of connection to others who share an active interest in art and community.

1. An Artful Connection: Join the growing membership of the d'ART Center to network and connect with others like you who share an interest in original fine art. Whether your interest is new or seasoned, the d'ART Center offers many educational programs, social events, and unique opportunities to keep you well connected to art, the artists and the visual arts community.

2. Members Make a Difference: Through the financial and volunteer support of its members, the Center presents d'ART SMART, a community outreach program that provides art instruction to under-served children and at risk teens. Join and see firsthand how success in art contributes to success in life.

3. Benefits of Art Appreciation It is a fact that exposure to arts and cultural activities improves quality of life. The mission of the d'ART Center is to offer the community an opportunity to meet the artists, see how art is made and participate in visual arts through education programs. Learn about art at the source. Become a member, support the arts and benefit from the many personal and professional connections that nourish your life, your work and your imagination.

Art: (n) a creative interpretation of a subject that embodies the elements of design, technical skill and personal expression.

The d'ART Center, an exciting regional not for profit Center for the Visual Arts, was established in July 1986 as a result of a partnership of public and community support. Now located in the historic Selden Arcade in the heart of downtown Norfolk, Virginia, the new d'ART Center is a unique attraction where you can meet the Artist and see how Art is made. It is alive with the excitement of creating. It has fascination for both the experienced art appreciators and for those who have not before been exposed to art. Activities at the Center connect the Artist and the Art with the visiting public.
