JUROR

Curator Laura Roulet is an art historian, independent curator and writer who specializes in contemporary and Latin American art. Ms. Roulet has organized exhibitions at the OAS Museum, Mexican Cultural Institute, the Museum of Puerto Rican Art, Edison Place Gallery, Project 4, Fusebox, and the District of Columbia Art Center. She has also worked with the Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden, including contributing to the retrospective exhibition entitled "Ana Mendieta: Earth Body, Sculpture and Performance 1972-1985" which represents the most comprehensive survey of the artist's works to date. She is also the author of Contemporary Puerto Rican Installation Art: The Guagua Aerea, the Trojan Horse and the Termite, a book which explores dynamic aspects of Puerto Rican art today.

AWARDS

The Juror will select the work for the exhibition from images and determine award winners when art is installed.
